This is UNEVALUATED Information

25X1

FROM : Chief, Information Control Staff
COUNTRY : China
SUBJECT : Russian Personnel in Shantung Province

25X1

1. On 30 April 1947 a jeep, painted dark red and yellow driven by a Russian wearing a khaki uniform with no apparent insignia, was observed near Fangtzu (119-11, 36-37) southeast of Weihsien. Other occupants of the jeep were a Russian woman wearing a khaki blouse and skirt, a Russian girl of about 12 years and a young Chinese woman.

2. A flag, one foot wide and three feet long, consisting of white criss-crossing strips of cloth, attached to a staff (see diagram attached) was on the front of the jeep.

3. [redacted] Russian vehicles on which this flag appeared were given unquestioned entry into any of the Army [Chinese Communist] areas.

25X1

[redacted] Note: It was previously reported that as of 29 April 1947, the Chinese Communists held the area between Weihsien and Kacmi.
